STATEMENT

Fair Work Act 2009

Sch 1, cl 95—FWC to vary certain modern awards

Variation of modern awards to include a delegates' rights term

(AM2024/6)

VICE PRESIDENT ASBURY

BRISBANE, 28 JUNE 2024

Variation of modern awards to include a delegates' rights term for workplace delegates – Fair Work Legislation Amendment (Closing Loopholes) Act 2023 – determinations issued.

[1] The Fair Work Legislation Amendment (Closing Loopholes) Act 2023 (Cth) (Closing Loopholes Act) amended provisions of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth) (FW Act) with effect from 15 December 2023. The transitional provisions relating to the amendments require the Fair Work Commission (Commission) to make determinations varying modern awards to include a delegates' rights term for workplace delegates, by 30 June 2024. The determinations must come into operation, and take effect from, 1 July 2024.

[2] This matter was allocated to a Full Bench of the Commission constituted by Deputy President Binet, Commissioner Lim and me. The Full Bench consulted with interested parties and stakeholders and received submissions. A draft delegates' rights term was provided to the parties on 10 May 2024 as an Attachment to a Statement issued by the President.¹ The parties were informed that the draft delegates' rights term was intended to be inserted into all modern awards, and that they would have an opportunity to apply for award-specific variations to the term following the conclusion of this matter.

[3] Interested parties were invited to file submissions responding to the draft term. The Commission received submissions from 27 parties concerning the draft term and has considered those submissions in deciding this matter.

[4] A majority of the Full Bench has decided to vary all modern awards to include the delegates' rights term at Attachment A to this Statement. This term is not endorsed by Deputy President Binet. The Full Bench has decided that a review of the term will be conducted after 12 months of operation of the term, to deal with any issues which arise with respect to its operation, generally or in relation to individual modern awards.

[5] The final determinations varying all 155 modern awards to include the term will be issued today and will commence operation and take effect from 1 July 2024.

[6] The following additional subclause will be included in the delegates' rights term for 38 modern awards listed at Attachment B to this Statement, to deal with the interaction of the delegates' rights term with other clauses of those awards, which may be inconsistent with the term because they provide more favourable entitlements:

XA.10 Interaction with other clauses of this award

Other clauses of this award may give additional or more favourable entitlements to workplace delegates (however described). If an entitlement of a workplace delegate under another clause of this award is more favourable to the delegate than an entitlement under clause XA, the entitlement under the other clause applies instead of the entitlement under clause XA.

[7] Reasons for this decision will be issued by the Full Bench in due course.

Attachment A—Modern award delegates’ rights clause

XA. Workplace delegates’ rights

XA.1 Clause XA provides for the exercise of the rights of workplace delegates set out in section 350C of the Act.

NOTE: Under section 350C(4) of the Act, the employer is taken to have afforded a workplace delegate the rights mentioned in section 350C(3) if the employer has complied with clause XA.

XA.2 In clause XA:

- (a) employer means the employer of the workplace delegate;
- (b) delegate’s organisation means the employee organisation in accordance with the rules of which the workplace delegate was appointed or elected; and
- (c) eligible employees means members and persons eligible to be members of the delegate’s organisation who are employed by the employer in the enterprise.

XA.3 Before exercising entitlements under clause XA, a workplace delegate must give the employer written notice of their appointment or election as a workplace delegate. If requested, the workplace delegate must provide the employer with evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of their appointment or election.

XA.4 An employee who ceases to be a workplace delegate must give written notice to the employer within 14 days.

XA.5 Right of representation

A workplace delegate may represent the industrial interests of eligible employees who wish to be represented by the workplace delegate in matters including:

- (a) consultation about major workplace change;
- (b) consultation about changes to rosters or hours of work;
- (c) resolution of disputes;
- (d) disciplinary processes;
- (e) enterprise bargaining where the workplace delegate has been appointed as a bargaining representative under section 176 of the Act or is assisting the delegate’s organisation with enterprise bargaining; and

- (f) any process or procedure within an award, enterprise agreement or policy of the employer under which eligible employees are entitled to be represented and which concerns their industrial interests.

XA.6 Entitlement to reasonable communication

- (a) A workplace delegate may communicate with eligible employees for the purpose of representing their industrial interests under clause XA.5. This includes discussing membership of the delegate's organisation and representation with eligible employees.
- (b) A workplace delegate may communicate with eligible employees during working hours or work breaks, or before or after work.

XA.7 Entitlement to reasonable access to the workplace and workplace facilities

- (a) The employer must provide a workplace delegate with access to or use of the following workplace facilities:
 - (i) a room or area to hold discussions that is fit for purpose, private and accessible by the workplace delegate and eligible employees;
 - (ii) a physical or electronic noticeboard;
 - (iii) electronic means of communication ordinarily used in the workplace by the employer to communicate with eligible employees and by eligible employees to communicate with each other, including access to Wi-Fi;
 - (iv) a lockable filing cabinet or other secure document storage area; and
 - (v) office facilities and equipment including printers, scanners and photocopiers.
- (b) The employer is not required to provide access to or use of a workplace facility under clause XA.7(a) if:
 - (i) the workplace does not have the facility;
 - (ii) due to operational requirements, it is impractical to provide access to or use of the facility at the time or in the manner it is sought; or
 - (iii) the employer does not have access to the facility at the enterprise and is unable to obtain access after taking reasonable steps.

XA.8 Entitlement to reasonable access to training

Unless the employer is a small business employer, the employer must provide a workplace delegate with access to up to 5 days of paid time during normal working hours for initial training and at least one day each subsequent year, to attend training related to representation of the industrial interests of eligible employees, subject to the following conditions:

- (a) In each year commencing 1 July, the employer is not required to provide access to paid time for training to more than one workplace delegate per 50 eligible employees.
- (b) The number of eligible employees will be determined on the day a delegate requests paid time to attend training, as the number of eligible employees who are:
 - (i) full-time or part-time employees; or
 - (ii) regular casual employees.
- (c) Payment for a day of paid time during normal working hours is payment of the amount the workplace delegate would have been paid for the hours the workplace delegate would have been rostered or required to work on that day if the delegate had not been absent from work to attend the training.
- (d) The workplace delegate must give the employer not less than 5 weeks' notice (unless the employer and delegate agree to a shorter period of notice) of the dates, subject matter, the daily start and finish times of the training, and the name of the training provider.
- (e) If requested by the employer, the workplace delegate must provide the employer with an outline of the training content.
- (f) The employer must advise the workplace delegate not less than 2 weeks from the day on which the training is scheduled to commence, whether the workplace delegate's access to paid time during normal working hours to attend the training has been approved. Such approval must not be unreasonably withheld.
- (g) The workplace delegate must, within 7 days after the day on which the training ends, provide the employer with evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of their attendance at the training.

XA.9 Exercise of entitlements under clause XA

- (a) A workplace delegate's entitlements under clause XA are subject to the conditions that the workplace delegate must, when exercising those entitlements:
 - (i) comply with their duties and obligations as an employee;
 - (ii) comply with the reasonable policies and procedures of the employer, including reasonable codes of conduct and requirements in relation to occupational health and safety and acceptable use of ICT resources;

- (iii) not hinder, obstruct or prevent the normal performance of work; and
 - (iv) not hinder, obstruct or prevent eligible employees exercising their rights to freedom of association.
- (b) Clause XA does not require the employer to provide a workplace delegate with access to electronic means of communication in a way that provides individual contact details for eligible employees.
- (c) Clause XA does not require an eligible employee to be represented by a workplace delegate without the employee's agreement.

NOTE: Under section 350A of the Act, the employer must not:

- (a) unreasonably fail or refuse to deal with a workplace delegate; or
- (b) knowingly or recklessly make a false or misleading representation to a workplace delegate; or
- (c) unreasonably hinder, obstruct or prevent the exercise of the rights of a workplace delegate under the Act or clause XA.
