Phoebe Langridge is a Senior Associate in our Litigation & Dispute Resolution team, with over 12 years' exclusive experience in general commercial disputes and litigation.

Phoebe represents both companies and individuals in matters involving contract disputes, trust disputes, shareholder disputes and insolvency. She regularly appears in the County Court and Supreme Court of Victoria, as well as the Supreme Court of New South Wales.

From the outset, Phoebe focuses on developing a clear and effective strategic plan for her clients, with an emphasis on achieving efficient resolutions through alternative dispute resolution processes, including informal roundtable conferences and mediation.
